A Word of Welcome and Announcements

Advent Devotional

Reader: On this fourth Sunday in Advent, we remember the angel Gabriel's proclamation that God's love for the world would be revealed in a child that would be born to a young girl of low estate.

Reader: But the way this love was revealed was totally unexpected – even scandalous.

Reader: By coming in human flesh, God let the world see into the very heart of the Creator of the Universe.

Reader: From the One who came into the world on that first Christmas Eve, we learned the extent of God's love and we also learned that each of us are truly beloved children of the Almighty.

Reader: We now light the Candle of Love, symbolizing our longing for the day of Christ's return; symbolizing the amazing love of God shown through Christ. Come Lord Jesus.
(The candle of love is lit.)

Reader: Let us join in prayer.

Unison: Loving God, while we patiently wait for Christ's coming again, help us to marvel on the fact that your love for each of us knows no bounds. May this love now be mirrored in all aspects of our lives as we freely share it with others. This we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

Hymn #5

Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence

Minute For Mission

Call To Confession

Confident of God's gracious love for us, let us, in all humility and faith, confess our sin before God and one another. Let us pray together.

Prayer of Confession (In Unison)

Lord, we love to hear the story of Mary. We marvel that God would take a young woman from a small town to accomplish God's purpose. We confess that we miss God's opportunities in our lives. We have blotted out the possibility that God could use us to accomplish God's purposes of healing and hope. We think that we are unworthy and that God would surely seek someone else to do the work. It is easy for us to put down the gifts God has lavished upon us, suggesting that we can't use them, don't know how to use them, or simply don't have the time. Lord, forgive us for our stubbornness, our faithlessness, our selfishness. Heal and restore us.

(Silent Confession) — In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Assurance Of Pardon

Leader: All things, in heaven and on earth, are reconciled to God in Jesus Christ. Forgiveness is ours through faith in the Lord, in whom God was pleased to dwell. Know that we are forgiven and be at peace.

People: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Thanks be to God

*Gloria Patri: *Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

Passing The Peace Of Christ

Leader: *As a forgiven people, let us share the peace of Christ
The Peace Of Christ Be With You.*

Scripture

Luke 1:59-79 (NRSV)

On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him Zechariah after his father. But his mother said, "No; he is to be called John." They said to her, "None of your relatives has this name." Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him. He asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And all of them were amazed. Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began to speak, praising God. Fear came over all their neighbors, and all these things were talked about throughout the entire hill country of Judea. All who heard them pondered them and said, "What then will this child become?" For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zechariah's Prophecy

Then his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke this prophecy:

"Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has looked favorably on his people and redeemed them.

He has raised up a mighty savior for us in the house of his servant David,

as he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,

that we would be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.

Thus he has shown the mercy promised to our ancestors,

and has remembered his holy covenant,

the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham, to grant us that we, being rescued from the hands of our enemies,

might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High;

for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways,

to give knowledge of salvation to his people

by the forgiveness of their sins.

By the tender mercy of our God,

the dawn from on high will break upon us, to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,

to guide our feet into the way of peace."
